Course Overview:

This course is designed to equip professionals with advanced skills to navigate the complexities of government relations, plan impactful events, manage stakeholders, and apply professional protocol and etiquette. Participants will gain in-depth knowledge and hands-on experience in managing government relationships, strategizing event execution, fostering stakeholder engagement, and mastering diplomatic protocols. This course uniquely integrates government relations, event management, stakeholder engagement, and protocol & etiquette for professionals who frequently interact with government bodies, host dignitaries, engage stakeholders, or plan formal events. By blending real-world scenarios, interactive sessions, and comprehensive case studies, the course empowers participants to approach each component with confidence. Ultimately, this immersive training aims to enhance participants' capabilities, enabling them to manage high-level engagements and formal occasions efficiently, making it essential for professionals in public relations, government affairs, and event coordination roles.
